CHARGES SUSTAINED

Against Rev. J. F. Chenoweth by the Investigating Committee.

APPEAL TO THE NEXT CONFERENCE

Will Probably be Taken by the Convicted Man—The Close of the Evidence—Some Very Strong Testimony Against the Accused Minister, but He Still Asserts His Innocence.

The case of Rev. J. F. Chenoweth, of this M. E. conference, charged with immoral relations with Miss Loyd, and with conduct unbecoming a minister of the Gospel, came to a close before the investigating committee of ministers at Moundsville yesterday, and the committee unanimously decided that the charges were sustained, and pronounced him guilty. The decision read as follows:

"We, the committee to investigate the case of the Church against Rev. J.
F. Chenoweth, report that after a careful consideration and examination of all the testimony offered, both charges brought against the accused are sustained unanimously."

The closing testimony was interesting and important, not to say sensational. Dr. Sterling, of Palatine, a member and officer of the K. of P. lodge which suspended Mr. Chenoweth, said he had in his possession a document in which the accused confessed his guilt.
Mr. Boggs, of Fairmont, presented documentary evidence of the most damaging character, and while he was on the stand Mr. Chenoweth created a sensation by declaring that if he remained in the room he could not keep his hands off the witness. He then left, but returned frequently and glared at the witness in a threatening way. His friends suggest that he should not be judged too harshly, as his troubles may have affected his judgment.

In yesterday's INTELLIGENCER was a statement that Mr. Boggs's testimony was not very damaging to the defendant, and seemed to elicit animus. This is not entirely fair to Mr. Boggs. For one who has as great reason for personal feeling in the case, he has certainly shown a calm and judicial spirit which is commendable. His evidence was furthermore backed up by letters, affidavits and other documents which themselves made out a complete case.

ENJOYABLE ENTERTAINMENT

At the Opera House Last Night, Given for a Good Cause.

At the Opera House last evening an entertainment was given for the benefit of the Home for Aged and Friendless Women. The late successful entertainment at the Clay school was reproduced in part, with several other numbers from other recent school entertainments. Following was the programme:

Piano Duet—"Qui Vive".....Florence Rice and Carrie Gutman.
Song—"Quanta".....Miss Steinfeld.
Recitation—"The Raven".....Miss Steinfeld.
Old English May Day.....The Violets.
Song and Drill.....The Violets.
Recitation—"One of the Violets." Piano Solo—"March from Tannhauser".....Bessie Kyle.
Dialogue—"Trying the Character".....A Minnet.
Recitation—"The Haven".....Mr. Nesbitt.
Gipsy Cantata.....Clark Riker.
Recitation—"The Visitors from Story Land." The Shepherd's March.....Flora Pollack.
Violin Solo.....Flora Pollack.
Recitation—"Belshazzar's Doom".....Mr. Brille.
Tableau—"Buenos Aires".....Mr. Brille.
Instrumental Trio.....Walter Sadler, Raymond Hoge and Mendel Taylor.

The good sized audience showed hearty appreciation for every number on the programme. All were very well rendered, the May pole dance and Gypsy cantata being especially enjoyed.
Miss Steinfeld, Mr. Brille, Mr. Nesbitt and Miss Pollack added much to the entertainment.

A Mysterious Robbery.

Yesterday Fannie Preston informed the police that on last Tuesday she had been robbed of two necklaces and a pair of diamond earrings by an inmate of her house or somebody else. Though the information seemed a little tardy, the police brought several persons up to the city building and examined them, and finally one girl, known as Sadie, was locked up for the night. The affair seems to be involved in mystery, but as it was allowed to go from Tuesday till Friday without being reported, the police cannot be blamed if the goods are never recovered.

Greatly Surprised.

My wife was confined to her bed for over two months with a very severe attack of rheumatism. We could get nothing that would afford her any relief, and as a last resort gave Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. To our great surprise she began to improve after the first application, and by using it regularly she was soon able to get up and attend to her house work. E. H. John-

There are very few to be had in the supply is mostly from Iowa and may have some profit in producing them this year.

TOWBOAT BURNED.

The John Dana Totally Destroyed at Point Pleasant.

News was received here last night of the burning to the water's edge of the towboat John Dana, in the Ohio river, opposite Point Pleasant, W. Va., yesterday morning. The fire originated from the explosion of an oil lamp in the engine room, and the flames enveloped the boat. The crew made a narrow escape. The boat was valued at $30,000, with $20,000 insurance. The owners were S. F. Dana & Co., the big Cincinnati coal operators and dealers.

"Fairies' Well."

The popularity of the Irish comedy is perennial, and so there was a large and delighted audience at the Arch Street Theatre last evening, where Con T.
Murphy's play, the "Fairies' Well," occupied the stage. This piece was given at the Walnut Street Theatre last spring, and, as those who saw it there will remember, it treats of the loves and enmities, the sorrows and sufferings, the amusements and privations of the Irish peasantry. There is the true lover, who would die for his sweetheart, and there is the heartless villain, who wants to marry the pretty girl himself. There is the grasping landlord, the high-spirited tenant, the faithful friend and the treacherous deceiver.

This great play will be at the Grand April 17, 18 and 19.

POWER TURNED ON

At the New Power Station of the Electric Railway.

Yesterday afternoon for the first time the new power house station of the Wheeling Railway Company, located at the foot of Forty-second street, furnished power for the electric cars. The power was kept on for about an hour and then turned off. Mechanical Engineer Wright said the trial was perfectly satisfactory, much better than had been expected. The big engines work beautifully, and though very massive, weighing fifteen tons, do not make any more noise when running at a rate of 600 revolutions than an ordinary automatic sewing machine.

The connections on the bridge connecting the power wire of the Bridgeport station with the trolley wires was disconnected yesterday afternoon, and as a consequence the old South Side power house furnished all the power. It made the speed of the cars lessen considerably.

Bonwood Loop Tracks.

The construction gang of the Wheeling Railway Company did not work yesterday on account of the inclemency of the weather. Work is to be pushed forward on the Bonwood extension, where a loop has to be built, entering from the north on Main to Sixth, to Water, to Eighth, to McMeekin, and return.

A Big Success at the Grand.

Laughter, excitement, gorgeous scenic effects and excellent specialties, together with a fine company, kept the unusually large audience at the Grand Opera House last evening in rare good humor. "Held in Slavery" was the play, and from the applause it received, crowded houses may be expected at the matinee and evening performances to-day. Martin Hayden as Julian and Anna Doyle as Jenny shared the honors.
Songs, dances, specialties and the pickaniny dances made the evening most enjoyable. The most realistic scene is the storm-tossed sailboat at sea in a rain storm of real water. Reserved seats at Genther's.

"The Old Homestead."

The attraction at the Opera House next Monday evening will be the famous drama by Denman Thompson, "The Old Homestead," which played four years at the immense Academy of Music in New York, and drew crowded houses all the time. There is something human in it that interests all classes of people. Its hold on the public that is not usually found in theatres —the thoughtful, church-going public—has not been equalled since the palmy days of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." It is pure amusement, with a moral.

NOW HE HEARS.

Remarkable Recovery from Deafness of a Well-Known Wheelingite.

Statement of Constable William A.
Love, Whose Hearing in Right Ear was Entirely Restored, and the Catarrhal Inflammation Cured by Drs.
Copeland, Bell and Davis—Proof Upon Proof of the Efficacy of Their Treatment in Catarrhal Troubles Affecting the Eyes, Ears, Nose, Throat, Lungs and Stomach, and in Fact the Whole System.

Mr. William A. Love, who resides at No. 188 Sixteenth street, and is County Constable of Union district gives his statement for publication as follows:

"My trouble began last September with a terrible earache. I was treated by two different specialists, but my eargot no better. At last I was recommended by a friend to try Drs. Copeland, Bell and Davis, and by so doing I derived great benefit from the beginning.
"When I first went to Drs. Copeland, Bell and Davis my right ear was all swollen until it was nearly closed, and I could not hear out of it. In fact, the whole side of my head was so very sore I could not lay my hand on it without suffering considerable pain. On receiving my first treatment I was relieved of my pain at once, only feeling my ear slightly painful, which finally passed away in about one month.
"My nostrils would stop up and the dropping of my head to throat with the hawking and spitting annoyed me terribly. Throat dry and sore

CONSTABLE W. A. LOVE, 188 Sixteenth St.

at times, causing me to cough a great deal in the mornings. Pains and soreness all through my lungs, appetite poor, and what I ate lay heavy on my stomach, bowels very irregular.
Headache and neuralgic pains over my eyes at times.
"I now desire to inform the public that the pains have all left, my ear and the hearing has been restored again, so well that I can now hear my watch tick without removing the cotton from my ear. My nose is nice and clear, the dropping down into my throat and hawking and spitting has also disappeared. I cough but little now when I catch cold. I feel much improved in my general health. In fact I felt so poorly last fall I did not care much whether I lived or not. I feel free to recommend my sufferers as I have been to try these specialists and be benefited as I have been."
